

Area 2 –Photographs

© Gordon Port

P1 Looking northeast along line of new footpath. April 2022

Area 4 –Photographs

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P1 Looking west towards New Ridley Road and Branch End. October 2022.

P2 Looking northeast down New Ridley Road. Species rich hedge. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P3 Looking east from the footpath on Mickley Common showing extensive gorse. October 2022

P4 Looking northeast at the gate into the riding track at Mickley Grange Farm showing extensive gorse. October 2022

P5 Looking north-northeast from the road to Mickley Grange Farm showing dead ash tree and newly planted species rich hedge in foreground. October 2022

P6 Looking north from Click-em-in-Dene to Mickley Common showing extensive gorse. April 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P7 Looking east down the footpath on north of from Click-em-in-Dene. November 2022

P8 Looking south along species rich border to east of Click-em-in-Dene. April 2022

P9 Looking west species rich hedge to north of footpath. April 2022

P10 Looking southwest to New Ridley Road. April 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

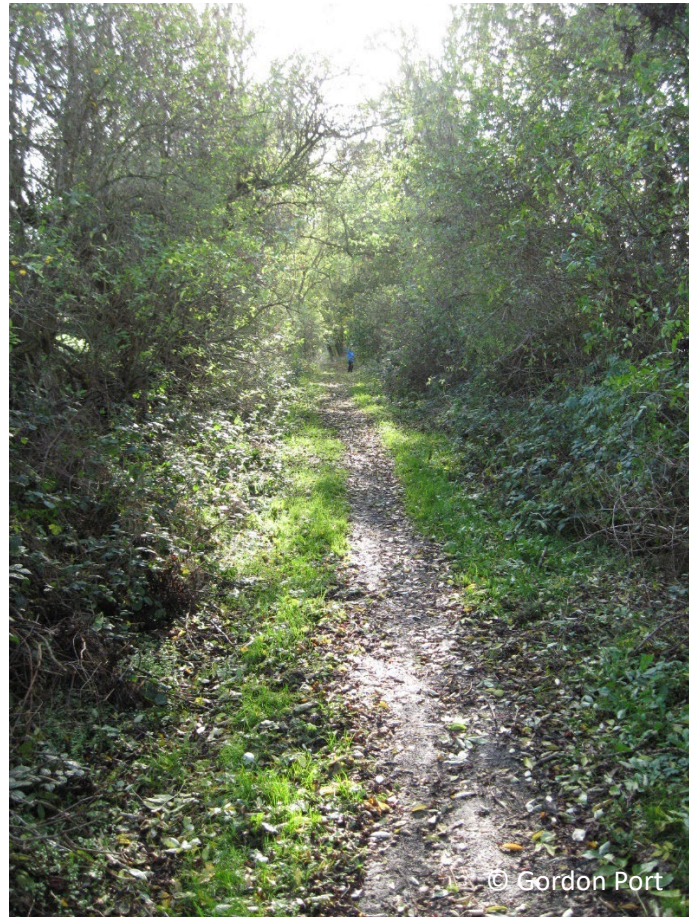

P11 Looking northeast to Troughstone Hill. Open scrub of gorse visible on the slope. October 2022

P12 Looking northeast up Modigars Lane, unmanaged hawthorn hedge (J2.1.2) on right and gorse to left. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

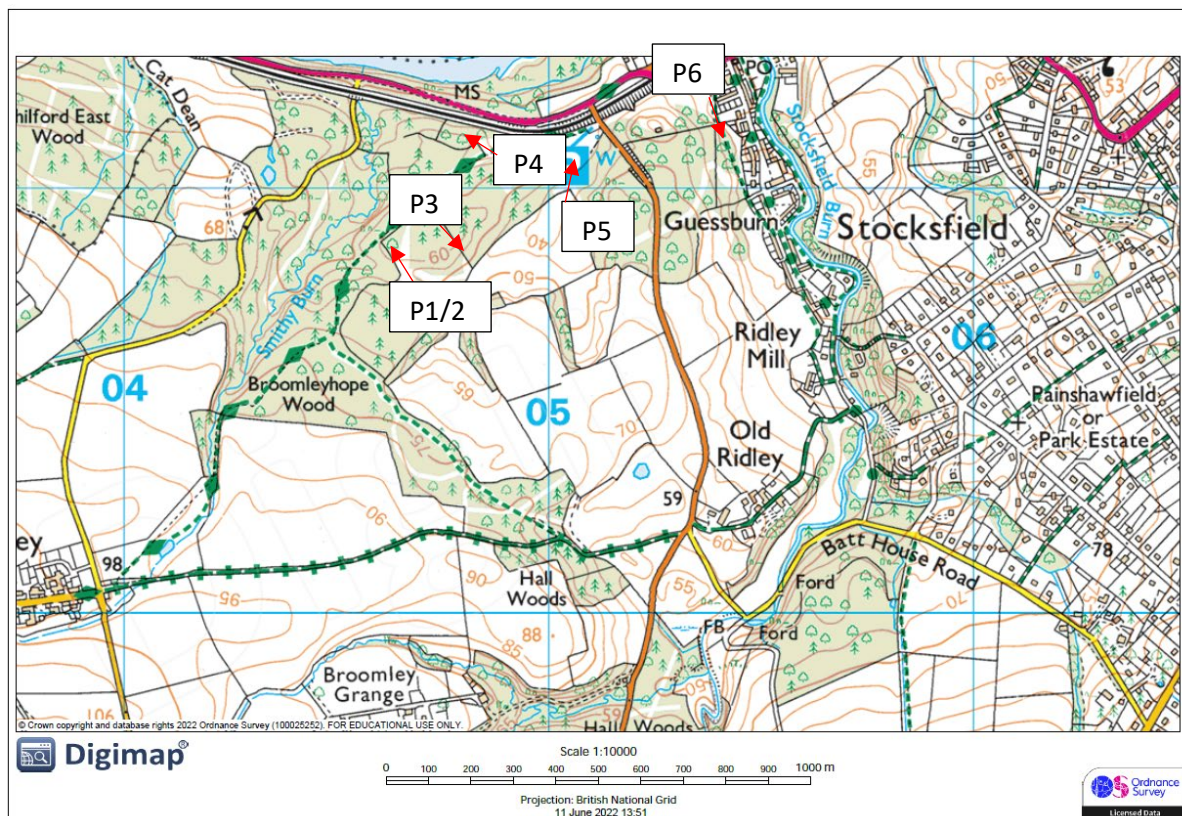

P13 Looking southwest down Modigars Lane, through the avenue of ash trees. October 2022

P14 Looking southeast field subdivided into garden / orchard. October 2022

Area 5 –Photographs

P1 Looking northwest Wych Elm split into multiple low-level crowns. April 2022

P2 Looking northwest Wych Elm split into multiple stems. January 2022

P3 Looking southeast along one of the permissive paths. January 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P4 Looking northwest Oak, blown down during Storm Arwen (26-27 November 2021) being cleared from path. January 2022

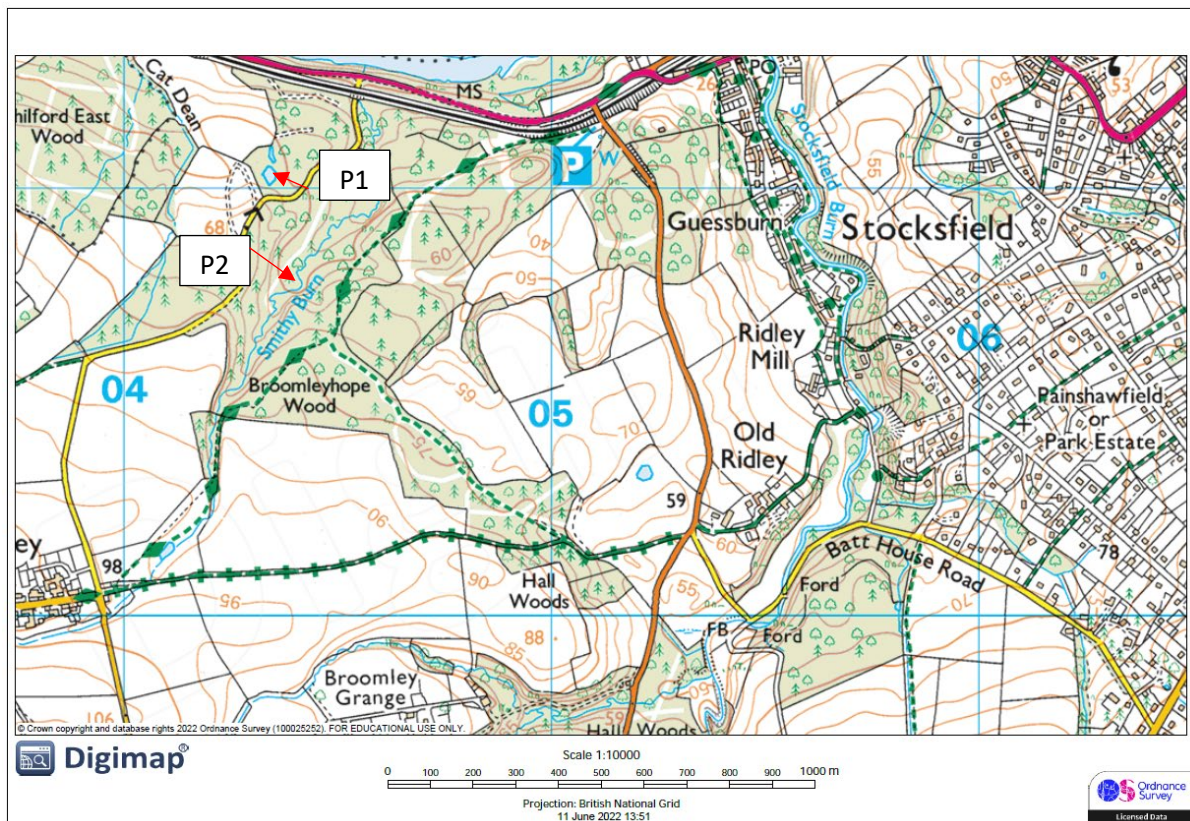

P5 Looking north-northeast across grassland towards Community Woodland carpark. January 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P6 Looking south-southeast along public footpath. July 2023

Area 6 –Photographs

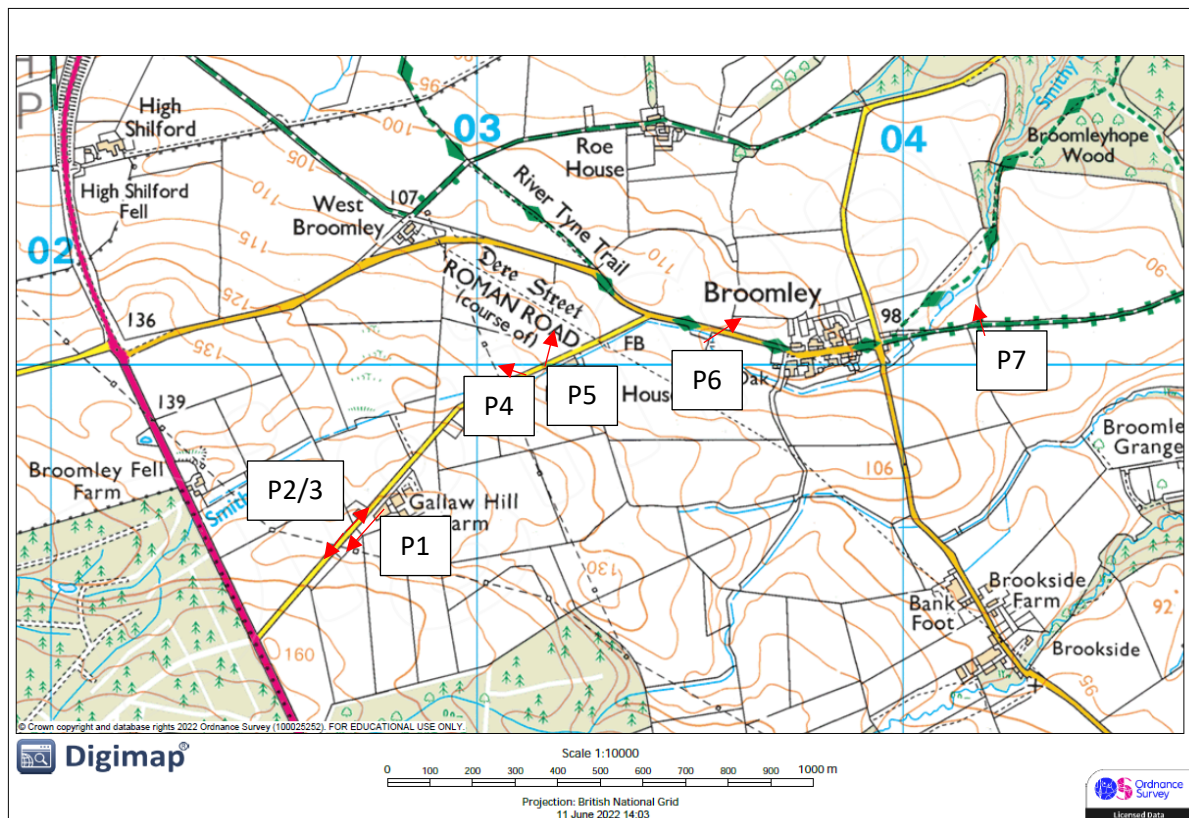

P1 Looking northwest natural glacial kettlehole in Broomleyhope Wood. December 2021

P2 Looking southeast area of commercial felling and windthrown trees (Storm Arwen 26-27 November 2021) in Broomleyhope Wood. The Smithy Burn runs in the valley. December 2021

Area 10 –Photographs

P1 Looking southwest new plantation of mixed broadleaved trees. September 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P2 Looking southwest mature hedge alongside road. September 2023

P3 Looking northeast along road. September 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P4 Looking west earthworks near Pasture House farm. September 2023

P5 Looking north new paddocks with post and rail fences. September 2023

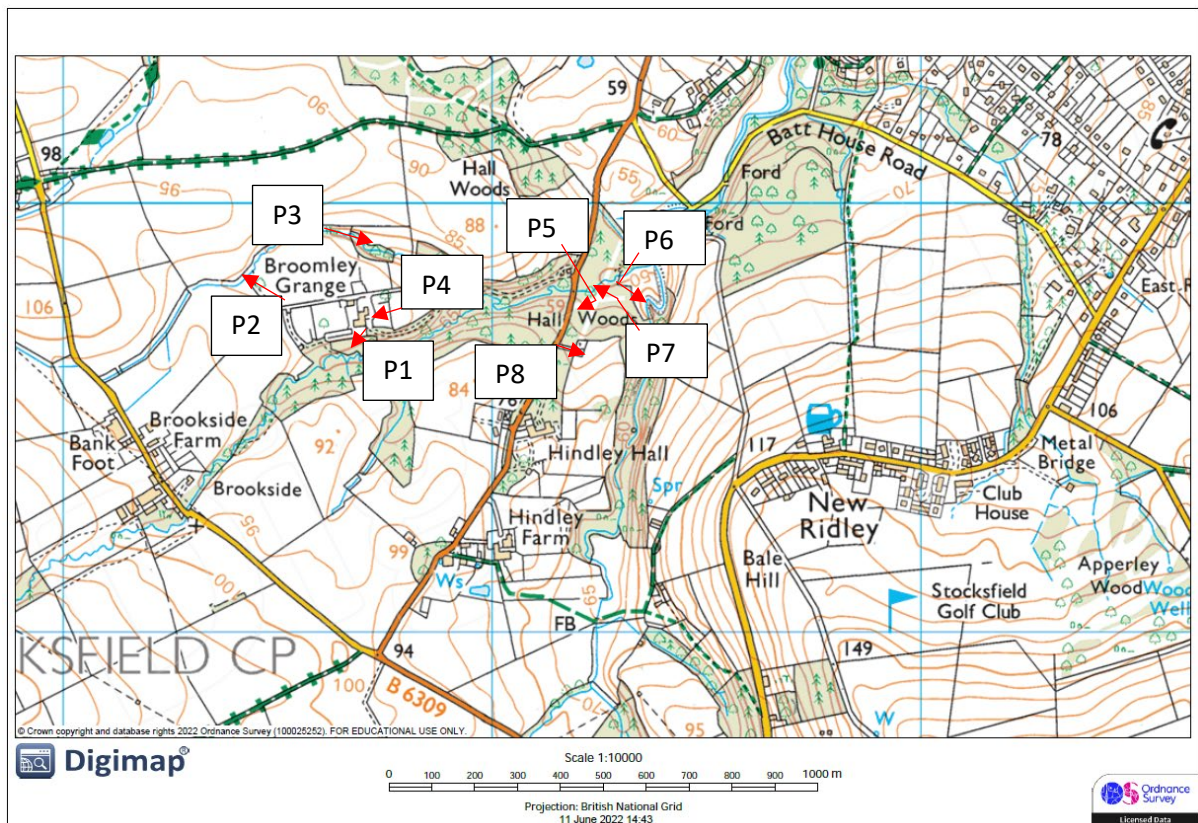

P6 Looking northeast plantation of mixed tree species. September 2023

P7 Looking north new footpath to prevent walkers disturbing stock in field to the west.
September 2023

Area 13a/b –Photographs

P1 Looking southwest Wellingtonia / giant redwood, Sequoiadendron giganteum. July 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P2 Looking northwest unmanaged grassland with planted shrubs. August 2023

P3 Looking east mature oaks along dene. July 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P4 Looking west Broomley Grange. July 2023

P5 Looking west through young trees developing in scrub. August 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P6 Looking east the Stocksfield Burn. August 2023

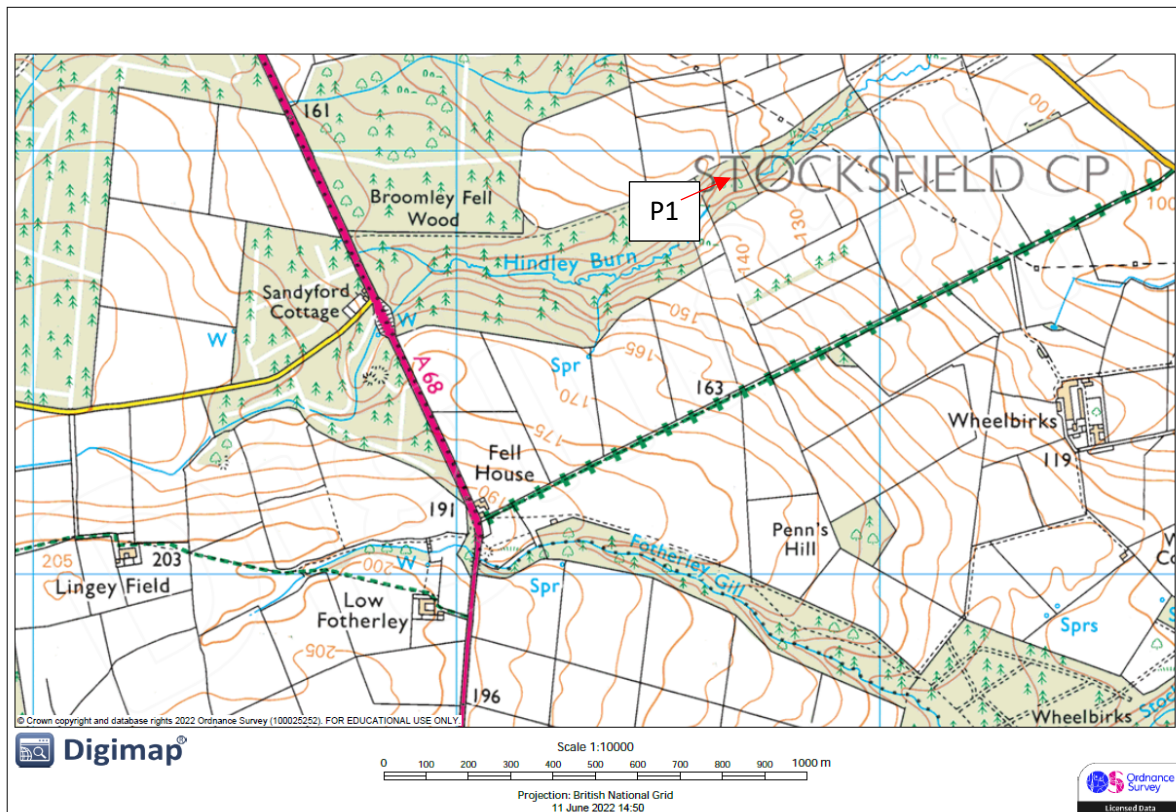

P7 Looking northwest trees developing in scrub. August 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

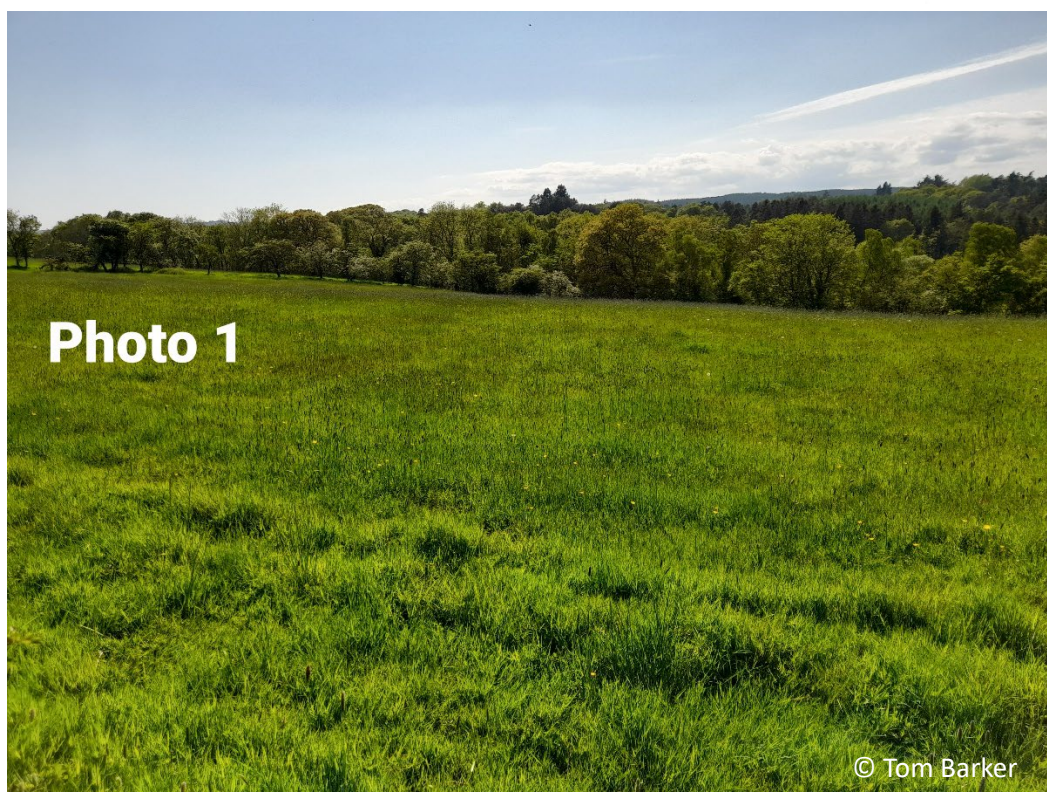

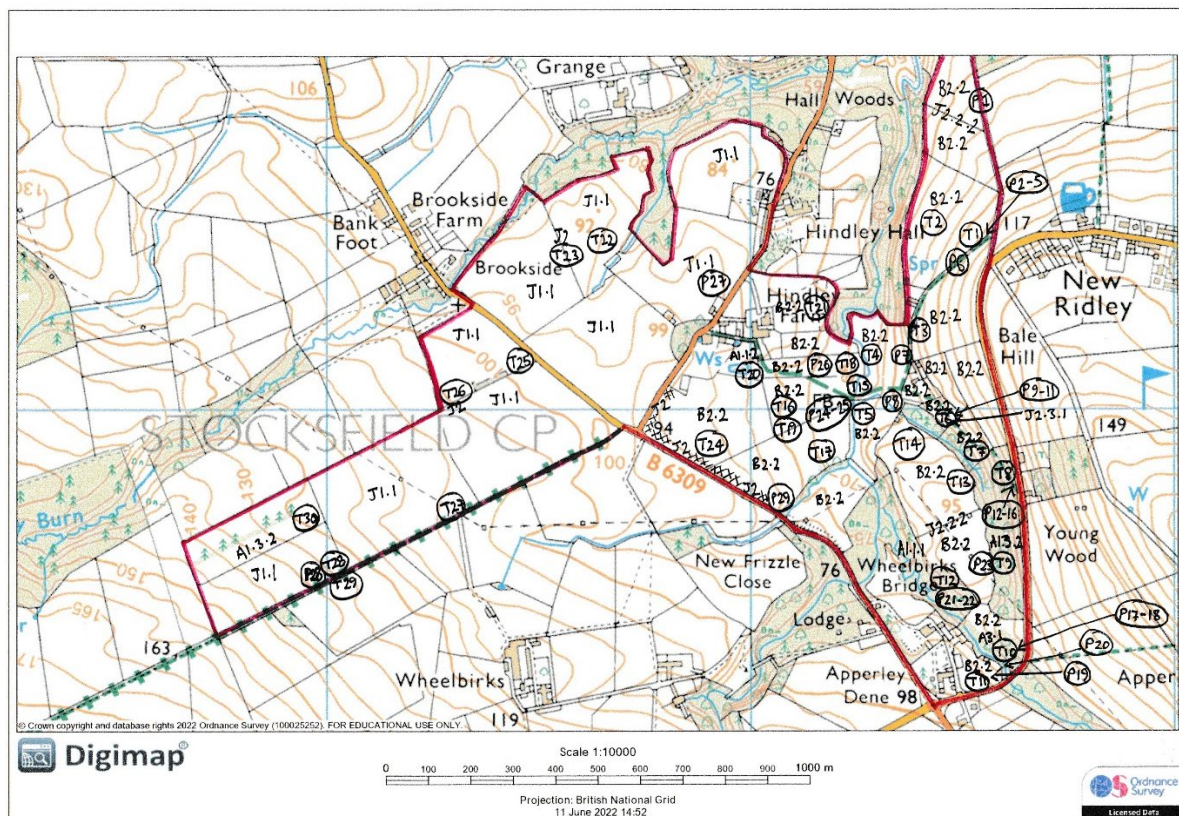

P8 Looking southwest into the entrance of the water treatment works. August 2023

Area 18 –Photographs

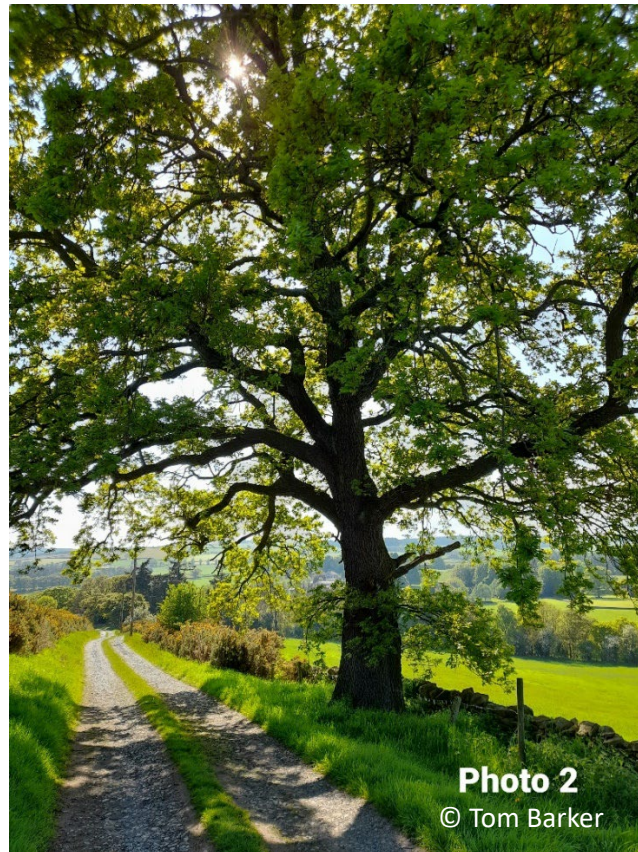

P1 Looking northeast dense scrub at the western end of Hindley Burn

Area 19 –Photographs

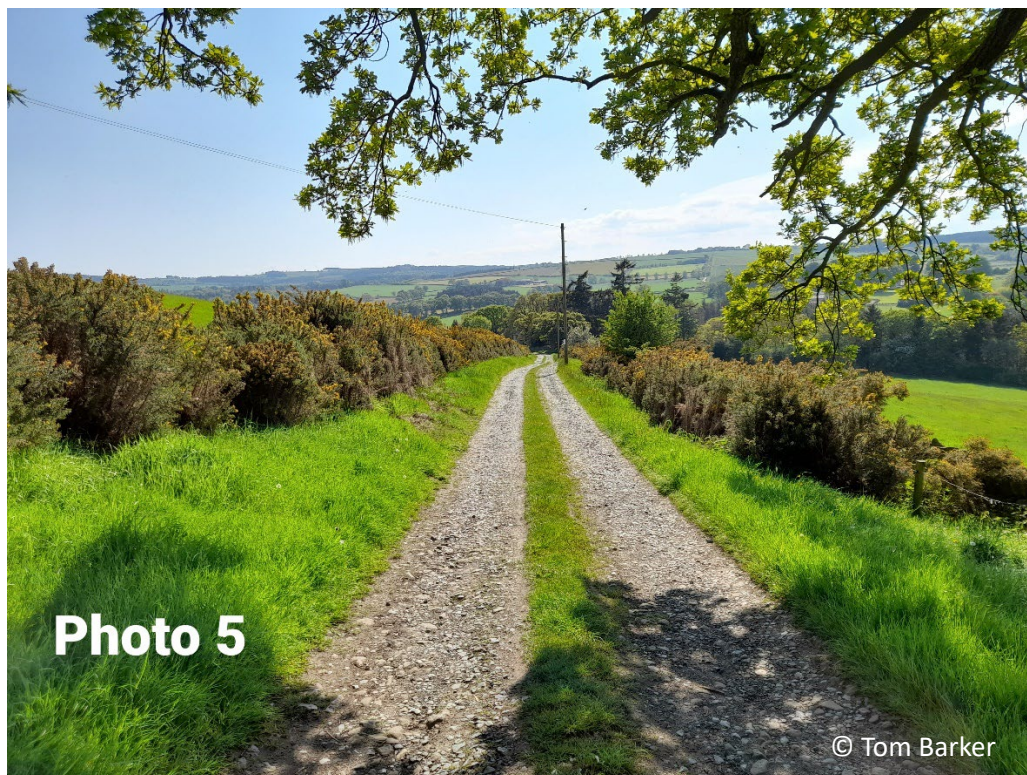

P1 Roughly westward view across field of semi-improved grassland (B2.2) from road. June 2023

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P2 Large oak (Quercus spp.) to north of track heading southwest to old quarry. June 2023.

P5 track heading southwest to old quarry. June 2023.

P7 Looking west, across the Stocksfield Burn to Hindley Farm. June 2023.

P10 Looking east, some larger trees present in an old, unmanaged hedge (J2.3.1) . June 2023.

P14 Looking west. Old gate posts near top of path by road. June 2023.

P17 shows area of parkland. June 2023.

P19 Looking west, semi-improved grassland. June 2023.

P23 Looking east, Signs of ash dieback visible on edge of wood. June 2023.

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

Photo 24

© Tom Barker

P24 Looking south, recent tree planting. June 2023.

Photo 26

© Tom Barker

P26 Looking east across Stocksfield Burn. June 2023.

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

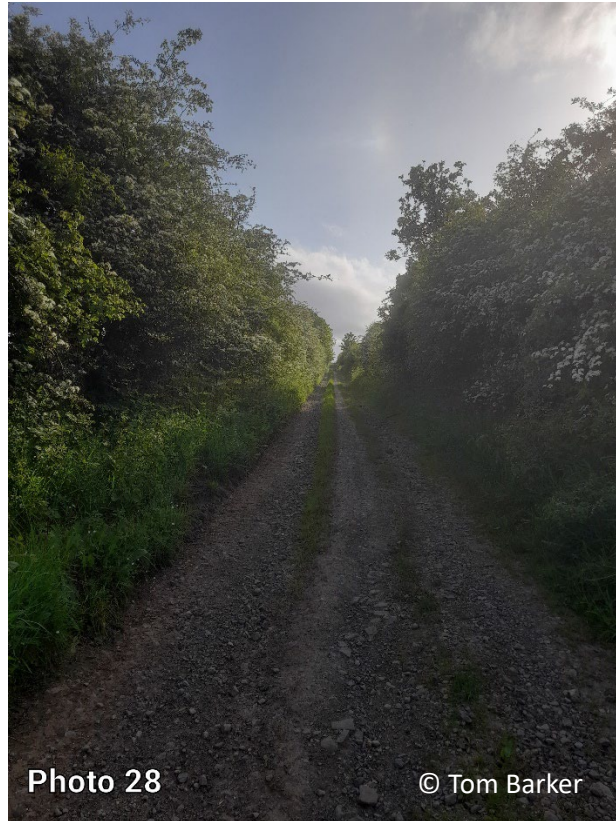

Photo 28

© Tom Barker

P28 Looking west-southwest, lane lined with hawthorn (Crataegus monogyna), dogrose (Rosa canina), broom (Cytisus scoparius), bramble (Rubus fruticosus), lime tree (Tilia spp.), willow (Betula spp.), wych elm (Ulmus glabra) and a range of herbaceous species. June 2023.

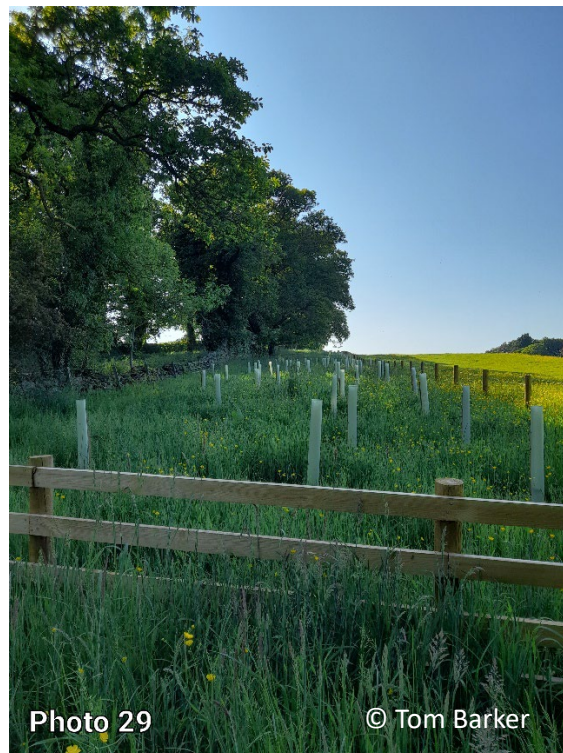

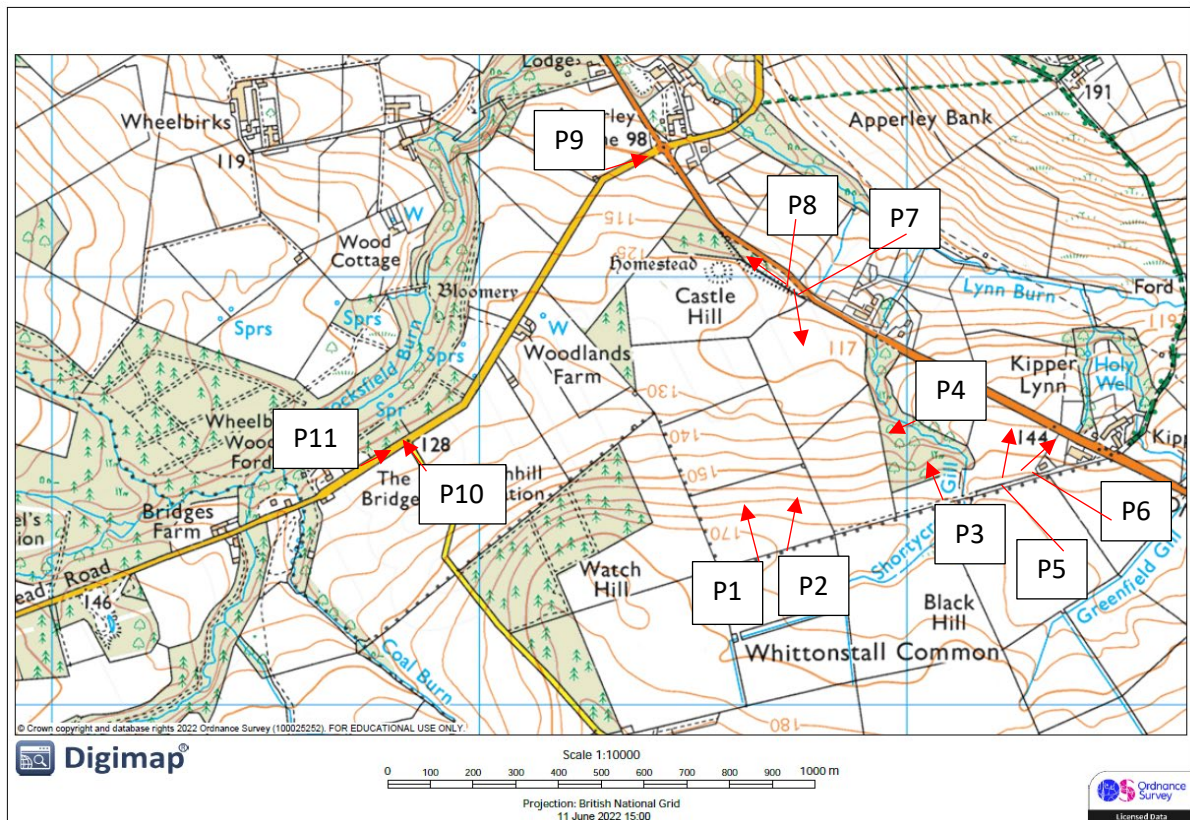

Photo 29

© Tom Barker

P29 Looking northwest, a portion of the boundary of two fields had been fenced-off and planted with trees. June 2023.

Area 24 –Photographs

P1 Looking northwest towards Apperley Dene. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P2 Looking north towards Apperley Bank. October 2022

P3 Looking northwest broadleaved woodland. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P4 Looking southwest badger activity in woodland. October 2022

P5 Looking north-northeast towards Apperley Bank. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P6 Looking northeast towards Kipperlyn. October 2022

P7 Looking south-southeast from B6309. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P8 Looking northeast along wide verge of B6309. October 2022

P9 Looking northeast along Lead Road towards Apperley crossroads. October 2022

Stocksfield Habitat Survey 2022-23 Appendix 2: Survey Photographs

P10 Looking northwest. Inscription on the wall opposite Watch Hill road quoting Francis Bacon's (1561-1626) essay 'Of Discourse'. October 2022

P11 Looking northeast along Lead Road. October 2022